

SENIOR SCHOOL VALUES, RULES and RELATED CONSEQUENCES

VALUES	RULES	CONSEQUENCES
RESPECT	We will actively listen when others speak We will make and maintain eye contact with the person who is speaking. Our full attention will be given to the person speaking. To show that I am listening and paying attention we will provide appropriate contributions. We will treat others how we would like to be treated We will show empathy by thinking about the feelings of others. Respecting our own and others property is something we will do at all times. We will show respect for our school and ourselves by wearing the correct school uniform As part of respecting property we will look after our classroom stationary	Step 1: Warning Step 2: Move to another seat for 5 minutes Step 3: Move to the back of the learning space for 10 minutes
RESPONSIBILITY	We will be responsible for any property in our care We will take responsibility for our own actions We will think before you act We will be responsible for our own learning	Step 4: Time out in buddy class.
RESILIENCE	Every day is a new day which we will start with a positive attitude We will bounce back after something negative has happened We will think about how serious an issue really is	Step 5: Time out in the office
LEARNING	We will be thinking independently We will be thinking about everything all the time and analysing everything. Expanding our knowledge and improving our skills is something we will always strive to do. We will think about areas in which we need to improve and focus upon these areas. We will always try our best and have high personal standards for our work	